

WOMEN OF INFLUENCE

Colorado Artists and Curators

Taking a regional perspective on notable women artists of Colorado, the Center invited seven of Colorado's leading curators to recommend "Women of Influence" from their respective regions. From their recommendations, the Center then selected artists from each region to create an overview of influential women artists of the state.

SEPTEMBER 13-NOVEMBER 11, 2012

Main Gallery

Artists:

Ashley Benton, Paonia
Valerie Brodar, Colorado Springs
Amelia Caruso, Ft. Collins
Carol Dass, Colorado Springs
Ania Gola-Kumor, Westminster
Margaret Kasahara, Colorado Springs
Jean Latka, Pueblo
Nan McKinnell, Ft. Collins
Terry Maker, Louisville
Amy Metier, Denver
Meredith Nemirov, Ridgway
Margaret Neumann, Denver
Martha Russo, Jamestown
Sara Ransford, Aspen
Betty Woodman, Boulder

Curators:

Bebe Alexander – Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities
Joy Armstrong – Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center
Shannon Corrigan – Emmanuel Gallery, Auraria Campus, Denver
Karin Larkin – formerly of Sangre de Cristo Arts Center, Pueblo
Petra Sertic – Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art
Jeanne Shoaff – The Lincoln Center, Ft. Collins
Camille Silverman - Western Colorado Center for the Arts, Grand Junction

Nan McKinnell, Princess Pot, Thrown porcelain, 1980's

WOMEN OF INFLUENCE PANEL DISCUSSION

Moderated by Erik Isaac and Michael Keen from the Untitled Art Show

Saturday, October 13

1:30 p.m. Cash Bar

2:00 - 3:30 p.m. Panel Discussion

3:30 - 4:00 p.m. Mingle with the Artists

For more information go to arvadacenter.org/galleries

INTIMATE DIALOGUE
Seven Women, Seven Voices

September 13-November 11, 2012

Upper Gallery

LA MEXICANA
Female Icons in Mexican Culture

Courtesy of the Abarca Family Collection

September 13-December 16, 2012

Theater Gallery

Opening Reception for
All Exhibitions

Thursday, September 13, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Free and open to the public

arvadacenter

6901 Wadsworth Boulevard • Arvada CO 80003 • 720-898-7200 • www.arvadacenter.org

THE DENVER POST
COMMUNITY